

6516208247.txt

I am a paying customer subscribing to XM Radio and don't think that they should be restricted in the services that are offered. I have used the weather and traffic channels and find these features very helpful when traveling.